Please note the following regarding our new and upgraded facilities:

Use of Lifelines is AT YOUR OWN RISK.

We ask that you please use caution when using any fitness equipment, and we strongly recommend that you never be at the fitness facility alone.

Please keep an eye on your personal belongings when in the Johnston Building, including at Lifelines, or elsewhere on Marina grounds. You are responsible for the well being and safekeeping of your personal items, as Hucks has no liability for belongings that are lost, stolen or damaged.

Please be respectful of other users of Lifelines. We ask that you wipe down equipment after each use; wear appropriate clothing and footwear; and do not remove any equipment from the facility.

We ask that you do not bring any food or drinks (except water and sports drinks) into Lifelines at any time.

We are happy to provide our customers and guests with Hucks-branded gym towels for use while enjoying our grounds and facilities. When you are finished using the gym towels and before you leave our Marina, please return all towels so that they can be laundered and replaced for your, and other guests', use.
